

Make vs Do - Practice Worksheet

Understand the difference between 'make' and 'do' in English. 'Make' usually refers to creating or producing something, while 'do' refers to actions, tasks, or work.

Exercise 1 - Complete with 'make' or 'do'

Choose the correct verb:

1. Can you _____ the dishes before dinner?
2. I need to _____ my homework now.
3. She _____ a cake for her friend's birthday.
4. They _____ a lot of noise during the party.
5. We should _____ a decision soon.

Exercise 2 - Fill in the blanks with suitable 'make' or 'do' expressions

Use common collocations with 'make' or 'do':

1. He wants to _____ a good impression.
2. Did you _____ your bed this morning?
3. We have to _____ a phone call before lunch.
4. I _____ yoga every morning.
5. She _____ a mistake in her report.

Exercise 3 - Correct the mistakes

Identify and correct the incorrect use of 'make' or 'do':

1. She did a cake for her mother.
2. I make my homework before dinner.
3. He does a decision quickly.
4. They made their exercises late.
5. We do a party last weekend.