

Giving Directions in English (A2) – ESL Worksheet

MyESLFriends.com.br – Printable worksheet for ESL teachers and students.

Warm-up

1. How do you usually ask for directions?
2. Have you ever been lost in a city?
3. What places are common in your town?

Useful Expressions

Go straight ahead.

Turn left.

Turn right.

It's next to...

It's opposite...

It's between...

It's on the corner.

Reading & Speaking

Student A: Ask for directions to the museum.

Student B: Give directions using at least three expressions.

True or False

1. The pharmacy is next to the bakery. (False)
2. The museum is opposite the school. (False)
3. The movie theater is near the shopping mall. (False)
4. The hospital is between the library and the supermarket. (False)
5. The gas station is far from the train station. (True)

Writing Task

Write directions from your house to your school using at least five expressions.

Teacher Notes: Recommended level: A2 | Estimated time: 45–60 minutes.